Minutes: Accepted as read

Aid: N/A

EAB: Linda wanted to emphasize that State would like to consider Lessons a form of entertainment and therefore subject to sales tax. Susan is looking into this.

Dinner: Claudine is looking to offer entertainment , similar to last year's caricatures.

Lena has volunteered to help out with dinner again this year. Mimi is doing seating. Speakers are need to make sure people in back of the room can hear. Claudine will ask Mason about this. We need ideas for table centerpieces. Claudine is getting Mason jars with custom M&M's for each place. Awards will be decided in near future.

Sponsorships: Nevergreen Paid 2017 sponsorship, Ric Schaffer paid partial 2017 and all 2018 for $450, Terry Huebner paid 2017. Thank you to all.

Treasurers Report: Opening 31,910.68, paid out $16,465.82, Ending balance $15,506.86,

High Score- recently posted – No Issues.

Old Business: Regarding permission to Brandywine horse show and agreement signed for shows to come. Susan will author letter stating we are willing to give permission annual through the USEF excluding the running of Children's hunters – Horses and Ponies, Child Adult Jumpers and the Big Equitation on our date. Voted and approved.

Donation to PHA Show: Voted and approved in the amount of $1,500.

Jumper finale entries are light. We would need 40 horses to break even. It has since been cancelled. The board will revisit for next year.

Kara Stark Mcgrew will be attending our next meeting to explain how a donation by the NJPHA may help KSM Handicapped riding program. Terry Huebner has also ask for assistance with a rider in the NJEC program.

Mary Babick will be at the Dec. 4th meeting to discuss the Annual USHJA Meeting , rule changes and rules going into effect in the new Year.
